

Title:	Act for introducing voluntary activity in public interest
Country of residence:	HUNGARY
Location in country (municipality/region):	National
Date:	From 12/10/2007 To 12/10/2007
Aims or objectives:	Developing voluntary activities of young people
Who implemented the activity?:	Government of Hungary
Short description of the activity:	In 2005 the Government of Hungary adopted an Act introducing voluntary activity in public interest as a legal category. This law creates a framework for organisations, as well as for volunteers, in which they receive stronger protection, and reliable relations can be established among them with clear conditions. The act on volunteering defines special rules for the voluntary activities of youth under 18.
Email (published online):	beresz@webstation.hu
Language of the document:	English
URL:	http://www.worldvolunteerweb.org/resources/policy-documents/national/doc/law-on-public-interest.html
Areas:	Participation and active citizenship