

Title: Recommendations for the development of voluntary activities of young people

Country of residence: UNITED KINGDOM

Location in country (municipality/region): National

Date: From 12/10/2007 To 01/06/2008

Aims or objectives: Developing voluntary activities of young people

Who implemented the activity?: Government of the United Kingdom

Short description of the activity: The Government of the United Kingdom set up the Russell Commission with a mandate to elaborate recommendations for the development of voluntary activities of young people. This Commission took the views of young people into account when it presented recommendations covering all four common objectives.

Email (published online): carolyno@nya.org.uk

Language of the document: English

URL: <http://archive.cabinetoffice.gov.uk/russellcommission/report/index.html>

Areas: Participation and active citizenship